

KRTA dues are not deductible as a charitable contribution for income tax purposes, but may be partially deductible as a business expense. KRTA estimates that 3% of our dues are not deductible because of KRTA's lobbying activities on behalf of its members.